Bookstore Offerings 2012

PURPOSE: The OBCGS Bookstore strives to provide historical and genealogical resources to our members, research libraries and the general public. While our focus is primarily western NC, we will consider any historical or genealogical resource that might be of help to our members.

We publish many of our own books but also provide an outlet for others to advertize and sell their works. Please contact the Bookstore Manager if you are interested in selling a publication through our bookstore.

LOCATION: OBCGS History and Family Research Center
128 Bingham Rd., Suite 950,
Asheville, NC. 28806
(828)253-1894

LIBRARY HOURS:
Monday: 1:00 PM -- 4:30 PM
Tuesday through Friday: 9:30 AM -- 4:30 PM
Saturday: 10:00 AM -- 1:00 PM

ORDERING: Use the form at the end of this catalog to send your order by mail or go to our Ebay Bookstore at the link below to order online.

Individuals may order books at the library or submit their order by postal mail, including their check or money order (we do not take credit or debit cards at the library). If you order from our Ebay bookstore, <http://stores.ebay.com/obcgsbookstore>, where we sell surplus books as well as our regular priced items, we have PayPal available to charge your purchase with your credit card.

NC residents should include tax as applicable for their county. The tax quoted in this catalog is figured at 6.75%. Postage and Handling fees are listed for each book and are based on the current rate for media mail plus associated costs. Rates may change as needed.

Libraries: We will accept your purchase order and bill you with the order. Postage will be based on the weight of the items as a group and will be included on the invoice. We expect payment within 30 days of delivery.

NOTE!! This brochure presents our regular prices with the exception of the items found on page 12. Be sure to check our latest journal, A Lot of Bunkum or our Ebay bookstore site for other sale items. We also sell our surplus books on Ebay.

NOTE! Some items are noted to be available by special order only. This means they are not in stock and will require more time to be shipped.

Old Buncombe History & Family Research Center

Located at 128 Bingham Road, Asheville, NC 28806, (828) 253-1894

The main area served by Old Buncombe County Genealogical Society (OBCGS) encompasses the territory included in the original Buncombe County created by an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina at its session of 1791-92, ratified on January 9, 1792.

The original Buncombe County included those areas presently known as Buncombe, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, Madison and Transylvania Counties, and the western part of Yancey, McDowell, Rutherford and Polk Counties. The counties of Macon, Clay, Cherokee, Graham, & Swain were still Cherokee Indian Lands until 1835. For our purposes, however, we consider them a part of Old Buncombe County, as many families moved into these areas before they were officially acquired from the Cherokee.

Visitors frequently comment that they had no idea what wonderful resources we have. Staffed entirely by knowledgeable volunteers, we are able to provide personal help for your research in our library. Below you will find a summary of our resources.

- Books – approximately 10,000 covering genealogy & history, including vital record indexes of births, marriages, and deaths, (Our card catalog index is on our web site.)
- Geographical – areas include most of the 50 states, Canada, England, France, Germany, Ireland, Scotland and other countries. Emphasis is on Buncombe and surrounding counties, as well as SC, GA, TN, VA, PA, and MD.
- Periodicals – Past issues from over 175 genealogy & history organizations and current journals from 84 organizations,
- Obituaries – Collection from mid 1977 to present available in both paper and electronic form plus an ever growing number of earlier obituaries,
- Family Histories – Over 1600 vertical files organized by surname (a list is on our web site)
- History Files – clippings from newspapers and magazines as well as some original work with emphasis on schools, churches, and military,
- Microfilm/Microfiche – local records covering census, church and family histories
- CDs – various databases and family histories,
- Cemeteries – Files on Buncombe County cemeteries containing GPS location, directions, descriptions, and compiled records of burials. Also, books on cemeteries in surrounding counties.
