NEW! Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church South History (Mt. Pleasant Holston Conf.) VOL. 1-4, compiled by Asbury Methodist Church and OBCGS - membership changes, transfers, deaths, births and marriages are documented in this registry kept by the church starting with the first volume in 1878. Volume 2 begins in 1928, where the first volume ended; volume 3 begins in 1938, where volume 2 ended. Volume 4 is a summary of the broader records that covered the Biltmore, Mt. Pleasant, Skyland and West Chapel churches at their quarterly meetings of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The quarterly meeting notes in Volume 4 are comprised of handwritten notes from 1890-1899 and then a typewritten form was used which are included from the years 1909-1913. Many individuals, primarily stewards, elders and other leaders are named in the quarterly notes. An every name index is included in all four volumes. From 64 to over 100 pg., sb, index.

NEW! "Calvary Episcopal Church Records, Vol. 1-4", edited by OBCGS – Established in 1857 and located in Fletcher, NC on the border of Henderson and Buncombe Counties, the historic Calvary Episcopal Church was home to some of the earliest families settling in western North Carolina. Four volumes of handwritten church records have been scanned, organized, indexed and bound into four books by OBCGS volunteers. The first volume runs from 1870-1885, Volume 2 covers 1885-1900, Volume 3 covers 1900-1910 and the last book runs from 1910-1920. Through the generosity of the church, these books have been made available to researchers and they contain such details as member baptisms, marriages, burials and confirmation records providing possible clues for your missing ancestors.

NEW! History of Medicine in Asheville, by Freeman Irby Stephens, M.D. - Dr. Stephens wrote this book in the last decade of his life (dying at age 81) after enjoying an active retirement from his medical practice in Asheville from 1948 - 1981. He wanted to preserve the history of medicine in Asheville as he was fascinated by the many characters in practice. He also thought the period 1880 - 1930 when Asheville became the nation's best-known center for tuberculosis treatment was important. This book contains biographical sketches of many of Asheville's physicians, including a special section on women doctors and black physicians. He sourced information from the newspapers, the Buncombe County Medical Society, personal interviews and several local museums and libraries in the area. Well written and engaging, this is a beautiful hard bound book and it was printed through support from the Western Carolina Medical Society and a host of sponsors after Stephens' death in 2005. 666 pages, hb, index. Price: $39.95, NC Tax: $2.80, P&H: $4.50

Register of Deaths in the City of Asheville, April 1898 - Aug 1909, by Ruth Dilling – this book is a copy of the actual register of deaths and burials in Asheville before death certificates were required. It covers deaths that occurred elsewhere with burials in Asheville, and most interestingly, deaths occurring in Asheville with burials elsewhere. During the 1880s and continuing well into the 20th century, Asheville and Buncombe Co. were a "Mecca" for the treatment of tuberculosis. Deaths occurred in Asheville, but the remains were shipped to other locations for burial, especially along the eastern seaboard. Find over 4,000 names indexed by decedent, date of death, cause of death and more. 280 pg., sb, index. Price: $39.99, NC Tax: $2.80, P&H: $4.00

Union Baptist Church, Est. 1879, by Greg Brookshire - a history of the church contains minutes, members, pastors and many pictures. 110 pg., sb, index. Price: $19.99, NC Tax: $1.40, P&H: $4.00

NEW! Western NC Bastardy Bonds Buncombe County 1824-1899, Ruth Dilling, editor – the bonds transcribed in this book give information on some of the out-of-wedlock births in Buncombe Co. during the 1800s. Many WNC names are found here from obscure "loose" documents stored at the NC Archives. In addition, the editor does a great job of explaining the use of bonds and the use of specific terminology. Copies of individual bonds are available through OBCGS. 274 pgs., sb, index. Price: $44.99, Tax: $3.15, P&H: $4.00

Western NC Bible Records, by Lawrence Wood – copies of bibles collected from over 100-mile radius of Macon Co., NC. These records contain births, marriages and deaths of family members. 61 pg., sb, alpha. Price: $14.99, NC Tax: $1.05, P&H: $4.00

Western NC Cemetery Records, by Mary N. Brown, editor – all cemetery records published in ALOB between 1980 & 1991 with directions and alphabetical listings of interred individuals. 100 pg., sb, alpha. Price: $14.99, NC Tax: $1.05, P&H: $4.00

Graham County, NC

Graham Co. Death Records, Out-of-County, 1978-2004, by Merrell Jenkins Riddle, Ed. D. – this volume includes over 1800 names. 65 pg., sb, index. Price: $14.99, NC Tax: $1.05, P&H: $3.50

Graham Co. Delayed Births, by Merrell Jenkins Riddle, Ed. D. – winner of the "2001 McLean Award". Graham Co. began keeping birth records in 1913, so most of the delayed birth records are for individuals born before that time. 140 pg., sb, index. Price: $19.99, NC Tax: $1.40, P&H: $3.50

Graham Co. Marriages Vol. 1, 1872-1910, by Merrell Jenkins Riddle, Ed. D. - Graham Co. was formed from Cherokee Co. in 1872, so marriage records are recorded in the "Graham Co. Marriage Register" starting in 1872. Look for earlier marriage records in Cherokee Co. 135 pg., sb, index. Price: $19.99, NC Tax: $1.40, P&H: $3.50

Graham Co. Marriages Vol. 2, 1911-1940, by Merrell Jenkins Riddle, Ed. D. - the second volume of Graham Co. marriages contains the remainder of the marriages from the 1872-1926 register as well as marriages through 1940 from the 1927-1965 register. Fortunately, more marriages licenses are included. Unfortunately, only 350 licenses were found. 162 pg., sb, index. Price: $24.99, NC Tax: $1.40, P&H: $3.50

Haywood County, NC

Annals of Haywood County, by W. C. Allen – this volume is an update of the original printed in 1908 at the county's 100th birthday. It contains county history as well as over 60 family histories. 714 pg., hb, index. Price: $69.99, NC Tax: $4.90, P&H: $4.50

Haywood Co. 1810 Census, compiled by Sandy Samz – Haywood County was formed in 1808 and included present day counties of Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Jackson, Swain and part of Transylvania and this includes 384 family households. Samz has incorporated names from missing pages in the current microfilm versions which makes this edition complete. 30 pg., sb, alpha. Price: $14.99, NC Tax: $1.05, P&H: $3.50

Haywood Co. Marriage Bonds, 1808-1870, by James & Vivian Wooley – the act authorizing marriage bonds was passed in 1740 and continued in effect until 1868 when marriage licenses were authorized. This list was extracted from microfilm in 1974 and is printed by groom and cross-referenced by bride alphabetically. 119 pg., sb, alpha. Price: $19.99, NC Tax: $1.40, P&H: $3.50

Haywood Co., Portrait of a Mountain Community, by Curtis W. Wood, Jr. – this Bicentennial book was commissioned by the 2006-07 Haywood Co. Board of Commissioners. It was collaboratively produced by many committees assigned by the Historical Society of Haywood Co. It includes lots of pictures, copies of actual documents and extensive endnotes. 482 pg., hb, index. Price: $39.99, NC Tax: $2.80, P&H: $5.50

Haywood Co. Permanent Roll of Registered Voters 1902, by Charles Biddix – prior to 1913, the state of North Carolina did not require the certified registration of births and deaths. This book provides an excellent supplement to the census schedules. 44 pg., sb, alpha. Price: $ 9.99, NC Tax: $0.70, P&H: $3.50

Reflections of Cataloochee Valley and its Vanished People in the Great Smoky Mountains, by Hattie Caldwell Davis - this book covers the stories about the settlement of the Cataloochee Valley from 1834-1934 including clearing the land; drovers, medical, church and school systems; and many other subjects affecting the settlers of the valley. 304 pg., sb, index. Price: $19.99, NC Tax: $1.40, Postage: $3.50

Henderson County, NC

Abstracts of Henderson Co. Estate Records, by Kathleen Summers – transcribed estate records for those people who died without wills in Henderson County from 1838-1900. This book only includes the date and the names of the deceased, the administrator(s) and the heirs. Original documents are stored at the NC Archives. 211 pg., sb, index. Price: $24.99, NC Tax: $1.75, P&H: $3.50

Cowart's 1850 Census Henderson County Research Edition, by Joseph A. Cowart, Jr. – In 1850, a shuffling of pages between two original copies of this census report were not corrected properly. This resulted in many page errors in the microfilm version that have been analyzed and sorted out by the author in this book. 308 pg., sb, index. Price: $31.99, NC Tax: $2.24, P&H: $4.00

Cowart's Index to Marriages Henderson County 1851-1915, by Joseph A Cowart, Jr. – this privately-created index of the 10,334 names has corrected spelling of names and places listed for both bride and groom. 163 pg., sb, alpha. Price: $24.99, NC Tax: $1.75, P&H: $4.00

Story of Henderson County, by Sadie S. Patton – the centennial celebration of Henderson County in 1938 helped spur the author to write this book from her own research, gathering of newspaper articles and recording local stories from other sources. 290 pg., hb, index. Price: $39.99, NC Tax: $2.80, P&H: $4.00

Jackson County, NC

NEW! I'm in the Army Now - World War I Veterans of Transylvania County, NC, by Jan Plemmons - this book was designed to tell the stories of a small cadre of soldiers, those that served from Transylvania County, NC. Plemmons focused on the soldiers so her primary source was the World War I Service Record Cards (SRC). Unfortunately, not all soldiers had a SRC so the author also used the 1930 census that collected military service data. Despite the errors found in both resources, Plemmons rallied on and utilized other resources described in the introduction, including family members. She outlined each soldier's story with a reproduction of his SRC if available, his vital information such as parent's names and obituary and all documentation is present with each listing. The soldiers are listed alphabetically and Plemmons included short blurbs on interesting facts about the war. Thoroughly researched and well documented, the book is a valuable resource on local men and their families. 501 pgs., hb, index. Price: $49.99, NC Tax: $3.50, P&H: $5.00

NEW! Descendants of Andrew E. Banks and Rachel Ruth Turner of Yancey County, NC, by Marshall A. Styles. This book is a continuation of the extensive research by Styles into the descendants of the Turner and Banks families who were early settlers of Western N.C. Differing from his first book "Turner and Banks, Pioneer Families of Western N.C., 1738-2002", which covered the family of pioneer Joseph Turner, this new book focuses on the descendants of one of Joseph's granddaughters, Rachel Ruth Turner. She was the only grandchild to stay and settle in Yancey County, N.C. while all the other grandchildren moved to other states. Styles begins the book with 20+ pages of newspaper accounts of Andrew Banks and his family from 1834-1903 and continues on to build all nine generations of descendants of this married couple leading to Styles' own grandchildren. Many stories and documented facts stage the family's history to make this interesting reading and a must-have book for anyone researching the connections to this family. 620 pgs., sb, index. NEW! Baxter Cemeteries of Rutherford County, NC, by Sherrie Myers - the author stumbled upon a small family cemetery when she moved into a gated community in Western North Carolina. No one could answer her simple questions about the family or the ownership of the cemetery so she set to work to research the family names on the stones. Eventually, she located another cemetery full of members related to the same family and she was able to trace the members, set up a family tree and outlined their stories from the early 1800s to today. The Baxter family had many interesting characters including a state senator, a university president and an American actress along with a notorious murder in the local area. Well researched and documented with lots of stories, photographs, endnotes and a bibliography, this book will become a reliable resource on the Baxters, Linneys and more. 101 pgs., sb, index. Price: $19.99, NC Tax: $1.40, P&H: $3.50.

NEW! A History of the Baxter Cemetery Camp Creek by Charles E. Cabler - this is the second book on the Baxter family from Rutherford Co., NC, that we have begun selling in the past several months. The author of the other Baxter Family Cemeteries book, Sherrie Myers, was the researcher on this book and the author credits her with much of the genealogical research as well as many of the photographs. The author found 15 graves, three of them unmarked and the rest marked for surnames Morris, Baxter and Bennett. This book includes details on the Baxter family who were buried there with information on each person by name and gravesite number. The author has included pictures of the gravestones, personal documents like wills, death certificates and land deeds to illustrate the family documentation and many photographs of people and homes that would be of interest to readers researching these family members. 134 pgs., sb, index. NEW! The MacGeoghegans – The Gahagan Family of Old Buncombe County, by Michael D. Gahagan. The author started gathering family history information as far back as 1977 but it was not until his retirement in 2009 that he could put it all together in a book. He contacted many people to gather stories and documents to tell the story of the early settler Lawrence Gahagan, who married Sarah Pringle. Lawrence was born in Ireland about 1755-1760 and died about 1802-1803 in the Asheville, Buncombe Co., NC area. From there, he follows Lawrence's seven children down the line of descendants to Mike's own grandchildren. With many documented records, letters and pictures, this book is a wealth of solid information on the Gahagan family and will be treasured by anyone connected to the family. Maps, pictures and a full name index make this book easy to use in research. Price: $37.99, NC Tax: $2.66, P&H: $5.50.

NEW! Demand of Blood, the Cherokee War of 1776, by Nadia Dean - As the Revolutionary War was beginning between the American colonies and Britain, another conflict was expanding from a simmer to a boil - between the Cherokee and the Americans. Dean has meticulously researched the Cherokee War of 1776 and presents the details in a drama that will hold you from beginning to end. Dragging Canoe, the charismatic Cherokee war leader and staunch British ally, waged guerilla warfare throughout the southern colonies to regain control of their native hunting grounds. In retaliation, colonial powers sent 6,000 militiamen into Cherokee country to destroy their towns and crops. This book contains a thorough bibliography, an index, several appendices, drawings, maps, photographs and copies of documents to help bring the stories to life. 440 pgs., hb, index. Price: $34.99, NC Tax: $2.45, P&H: $4.50.

Many WNC surnames are covered included and it contains many pictures. 452 pgs., hb, index. Price: $74.99, NC Tax: $5.25, P&H: $4.50

NEW! Letters & Battles of the NC 58th Infantry Regiment 1861-1865, by Rex Redmon - covering the North Carolina men who fought in the Civil War from Mitchell and Yancey Counties, Redmon brings them to life with their own words from letters and pictures. Many famous battles were referred to in the letters, but security prevented a lot of details to be revealed. The book includes a good summary of the people who wrote the letters, three appendices and a full index that details the people, places and battles mentioned in the book. 354 pgs., sb, index. Price: $29.99, NC Tax: $2.10, P&H: $4.00

Melungeons – the Resurrection of a Proud People, by N. Brent Kennedy – this book presents the history of a brave and lonely people who were needlessly disenfranchised during the early settlement of America. 179 pg., sb, index. Price: $17.99, NC Tax: $1.26, P&H: $3.50

NEW! Melungeons – the Last Lost Tribe in America, by Elizabeth Caldwell Herschman – spurred by Kennedy's book "Melungeons – the Resurrection of a Proud People", the author researched and wrote this book to describe her premise that the earliest settlers of America were of Mediterranean extraction, and of a Jewish or Muslim religious persuasion. Sometimes called "Melungeons", these early settlers were among the earliest nonnative "Americans" to live in the Carolinas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia. Supported by DNA testing, genealogies and historical documents, Herschman suggests that the Melungeons included such notable early Americans as Daniel Boone, John Sevier, Abraham Lincoln, Jefferson Davis and Andrew Jackson. Well documented, this book includes many appendices and a bibliography. 186 pgs., sb, index. Price: $18.99, Tax: $1.33, P&H: $3.50

NEW! Children of Perdition, Melungeons and the Struggle of Mixed America, by Tim Hashaw – from the founding of America through the American Revolution, the Civil War and World War II, the author documents the histories of early related mixed race communities (called "children of perdition") still existing today. Some oppressed groups fought with guns, some fought in court, some exercised civil disobedience; the Melungeons, however, fought by telling bold tales. To escape persecution caused by the stigma of having African blood, they invented fantastic stories of their origins or "lost colony" legends. Well documented with footnotes and a bibliography, this book tells how Americans have traditionally reacted to race mixing as documented in the struggles of mixed communities. 182 pgs., sb, index. Price: $18.99, Tax: $1.33, P&H: $3.50

Methodist Episcopal Church in NC 1865 – 1939, by Rev. George William Bumgarner – this volume illuminates the human interests, personalities and labors in the districts, churches and institutions of the thinly-spread Blue Ridge Atlantic Conference and its antecedents in NC. Price: $19.99, NC Tax: $1.40, P&H: $3.50

NEW! Os Deaver Diary 1885-1896, Forks of Ivy, NC, edited by Sandy Jordan, Ruth Dilling, Sammy Sams and Richard Sams Dillingham – this diary was kept in the Os Deaver store at the Forks of Ivy, a rural crossroads settlement in Western North Carolina. "The store stood near the confluence of Big Ivy Creek of Buncombe County and Little Ivy Creek of Madison County, beside the road that led north from Asheville to Mars Hill, to Burnsville, north to Boone or to locations in East Tennessee" writes Richard Dillingham in the introduction. With that description, you can imagine how much information must have flowed through the people who stopped at the store to buy supplies and the proprietors, "Squire" Osborne Deaver, his wife Kittie McElroy and their nephew Jimmie McElroy who lived with them. This book has been lovingly prepared by the descendants of the proprietors. You will read the actual pages from the diary and be witness to the everyday occurrences of a mountain community. The weather, relationships between neighbors, births, deaths, clashes over debts or land disputes and much, much more are included on these pages. Many pictures are included as well, as the editors piece together the family, the diary and the community in a lasting story of rural life in the late 1800s in Southern Appalachia. 438 pgs., sb, index. Price: $34.99, N.C. Tax: $2.45, P&H: $4.50
