

The Albert S. McLean Award is presented to the compiler(s) of the outstanding genealogical records collection pertaining to Western North Carolina in the preceding three calendar years.

This award is in honor of Albert S. McLean (1909 -- 1994) Charter Member and early Volunteer of Old Buncombe County Genealogical Society.

Past Recipients of the McLean Award:

2001 – “Graham Co. Delayed Births”, by Merrell Jenkins Riddle, Ed. D

2002 – “Madison Co. Obituaries, 1904-1935”, by Jan Plemmons

2004 – “Swain Co. Death Records, Vol. 1, 1913-1930”, by Merrell Jenkins Riddle, Ed.D.

2009 – “Buncombe Co. Court Records, Vol. I”, by Nancy Manning

2010 – “Western NC’s Revolutionary War Soldiers – a Collection of their Records, Vol. 1-20”, by Marshall Styles

2011 – “Burying Grounds, Graveyards & Cemeteries of Buncombe Co., Vol. 1-4”, by OBCGS Cemetery Committee

2013 – “I’m in the Army Now - World War I Veterans of Transylvania County, NC”, by Jan Plemmons

2013 – “Western NC Bastardy Bonds Buncombe County 1824-1899”, Ruth Dilling, editor

2014 – “Calvary Episcopal Church Records, Vol. 1-4”, edited by OBCGS

2015 – “Comprehensive Buncombe Co., NC Census Reports 1790-1840,” by Henry and Christine McNab.

2015 – “Tombstones: Bloodkin of Yesteryears, a Series of Volumes on Cemeteries in Madison Co., NC” by Steve and Julia Greene.

2016 – “1890 Buncombe Co., NC Census Substitute,” by Patricia Reese Dockery.

2017 – “Buncombe County Court Records, Vol. V, from 1858-1865,” transcribed by Sandra Samz.

2018 – “William Sitton’s Store Ledger, Haywood Co., NC 1829-1844,” transcribed by Ann Marie Broadbent.