

The Foster Alexander Sondley Award is presented to the compiler(s) of an outstanding genealogy volume pertaining to a family or families residing at some time in Western North Carolina published in the preceding three calendar years.

The award is given in honor of Foster A. Sondley attorney, historian and author of A History of Buncombe County North Carolina.

Past Recipients of the Sondley Award:

2005 – “Descendants of Frances “Frankie” Banks of Buncombe Co., from 1802”, by Marshall L. Styles

2006 – “Jarrett – Pennsylvania to North Carolina and Beyond”, by Charles E. Jarrett & Elizabeth Jarrett Walton

2007 – “Sarah Colley (Jones) of Rutherford County NC”, by Marshall L. Styles

2009 – “Marmaduke Lamb & Wife Orpha Rollins, Greene County, TN”, by Marshall L. Styles

2011 – “William Henry Duckworth & Catherine Singleton, a Family of Burke County, NC”, by Winston A. Riddle, Ed. D.

2012 – “Descendants of Robert Edney & Anna Wrensher of North Carolina”, by Marshal L. Styles.

2013 – “Robert Henry, a Western North Carolina Patriot”, by Richard Russell.

2015 – “The House on Hill Street – the Story of the Roberts Family,” by Susie Roberts Ray.

2017 – “Records of John Stiles (a son of Benjamin Stiles) of Old Lincoln Co., NC and His Descendants,” by Marshall Styles (2016).

2017 – “The Biddix Family – A Legend That Endures,” by Randy Biddix.

2018 – “The Children of Israel,” by Dr. Kenneth D. Israel.

2018 – “All Roads Lead to Haywood Co., NC, Vol. II, The Silver and Related Families,” by Audry Hawkins Gowing (dec.) and edited by Sharon Lee Smith.