

The Bob Terrell Award is presented to the author(s) of an outstanding local history publication pertaining to Western North Carolina published in the preceding three calendar years.

This award is in honor of Bob Terrell (1928 -- 2009) a beloved local author and Asheville Citizen Times columnist who focused on stories of people, places and history in Western North Carolina.

Past Recipients of the Bob Terrell Award:

2008 – “Fear in NC – the Civil War Journals & Letters of the Henry Family”, by Karen L Clinard & Richard Russell

2009 – “Hominy Valley Revisited, a Journey Back to Our Favorite Times”, by J. L. Mashburn

2011 – “Beaverdam - Historic Valley of the Blue Ridge Mountains”, by Rex Redmon -

2012 – “Traveling to Marshall”, by Jack Thomas

2015 – “Morris Brothers and the 1893 Murder of the Chinaman Ling Gun at Paint Rock, NC,” by Marshall Styles.

2016 – “Leicester, Buncombe County, NC,” by Greg Brookshire.

2016 – “A Home in Shalom’ville – a History of Asheville’s Jewish Community,” by Sharon C. Fahrer.

2017 – “Nesbitt’s Chapel Methodist Church History & Cemetery Records,” by Agnes Ownby (2017).

2017 – “World War II Newspaper Accounts for Soldiers of Madison Co., NC,” by Jan C. Plemmons (2017).

2018 – “Skyland and its Founder,” by Sandra Samz (2018).

2019 – “Stompin ‘Round These Here Parts” by Dr. Kenneth D. Israel, Jewel Israel and Chester Hill (2019).