

Old Buncombe County Genealogical Society

Bookstore April 2026 Catalog

OBCGS maintains a bookstore to serve the genealogy community. We sell books that we publish, and books published by others. We do accept Purchase Orders from established Libraries, and we bill for shipping by the box, not the item, when you order directly from us. An order form may be found at the back of this catalog.

The books in this catalog are new, but we also sell used books in our eBay bookstore. You may access that store at obcgs.com under the tab Books Sales & Publishing. On our eBay store you may use a debit card or charge card. We also accept orders over the phone using a credit card.

Let us know if we may be of help by emailing info@obcgs.com or calling 828-253-1894. Thanks.

NEWER BOOK! A Mosaic of Memories, by OBCGS Writers Group

We are excited to present this new book! Members of the OBCGS Writers Group meet via Zoom once a month to share and support each other as they venture into publishing a book. Recently some members took a challenge to write a few pages about one person – not a whole book. These submissions have been combined into a book of memories and a lot of family research. Surnames include – Anderson, Bell, Bellinger, Berry, Boyd, Britain, Bull, Bureson, Campbell, Carpenter, Case, Chapman, Chastain, Clark, Constantino, Cox, Curtis, Eubanks, Gillespie, Gilmore, Gudger, Hammond, Hawkins, Holton, Hudspeth, Hutchinson, Jarmon, Jordan, Justice, Lake, Langley, Lance, Leicester, Maren, Mason, McCurry, McElreth, McLean, Miller, Moore, Norton, Owenby, Painter, Radford, Revis, Roederer, Smoak, Stevens, Surret, Thomas, Wagner, Williams, Winfree, Withrow, and Wright. Each author has also written a short bio so that you can become acquainted with them. These bios are a testament to the variety of backgrounds and interests of each author resulting in this fascinating book. This book is enjoyable reading and may just provide that research fact you have been seeking. The authors were impressed with the strength of their ancestors, especially the women. The book is illustrated, in color and indexed. 178 pages, Price: $18.00, NC Tax: $1.26, P&H: $7.00. (Item # B-24)

NEWER BOOK! Remember Me and Forget Me Not, James Henderson – Haywood County, NC Civil War Letter Collection, By Linda B. Brown, (2025)

James Henderson & his wife saved letters they exchanged during his time in the Civil War. Linda has taken those letters and made them available to us. Reading the letters gives us a firsthand account of life during this time. Linda spent hours researching the history surrounding these letters and provides an in-depth look at that history. The book is well-sourced and illustrated. Whether you are related to this family or not, you will gain a real appreciation of how the war impacted life for residents of these mountains. 202 pages, ring bound, indexed. NEWER BOOK! When Violence Came to the Mountains, History of The Third North Carolina Mounted Infantry, June 1864-August 1865, by David P. Smith (2024)

This is the second book by David Smith on the two Federal Army regiments raised in the mountains of WNC. David describes the impact on WNC by the 3rd NCMI, under the leadership of George Washington Kirk. He states that he focused on separating fact from fiction. He identified the men involved, where were they from and what were they like. "I had to stay to the facts that I could find and if it was a well-known event, but not supported by facts, then I left it out, rather than embellish something I could not prove." If you follow Civil War history this is a great resource. 412 pages, soft bound, Illustrated, full name index. (Item number G-15) Price: $30.00, NC Tax: $2.10, P&H: $8.00

NEWER BOOK! John Paul Barringer Family of Cabarrus Co., NC and Its Connection with The Chariker Family of Graham Co., NC and York Co., SC. Volume 1 (The Chariker Concentration)

Editor: Larry O Nichols, Sr., (2024) Doug Sigmon and Larry Nichols worked together on several family history books over the years. When Doug passed away, they were working on this branch of the Barringer family. Larry has finished the book and divided it into two volumes. This first volume focusses on the Barringer/Chariker family relationships. They trace the family from Germany in the 1600's to North Carolina and points west. Among other surnames of interest in this volume are Brock, Eisenmann, Funkhouser, Gibson, Harrison, Martin, Nivens, Orr, Wuethrich, Bost and Smith. 334 pages, sb, full name index. Editor Larry O. Nichols, (2024) Volume 2 of the John Paul Barringer family book, concentrates on the Barringer family and their connections with the Jacob Alfred Smith family. John Paul Barringer's daughter Leah married first David Holton & then Jacob Alfred Smith in 1820 in Cabarrus County, NC. 402 pages, sb, full name index, Price: $36.00, NC Tax: $2.52, P&H: $8.00 (Item # G-05) P&H for both Barringer volumes bought together is $10.00

NEWER BOOK! A Heritage Revealed, The Early Biddick Family of Southwest England –

Second Edition, by Randy Biddix. (2025) The author has written this book as a follow up to Legacy that Endures: The Story of my Biddix Ancestors of Western North Carolina which tells the story of his 5th great grandfather, John Bittick, who came to America from the British Isles sometime before 1753. This second book expands on the earlier research by tracing the origins of the family back to England. A number of records which explore the surname and its usage, locations and movements, occupations, and the likely progenitor of the family back to the 12th Century are presented. A detailed review of the parish records and a Y-DNA analysis are also highlighted. Original research for this book was conducted in England by the author. There are 114 pages including a number of pictures, maps, graphics, and documents. This second edition is the result of further research by the author. He documents unexpected findings. The book is soft bound, sources well documented, and includes an every-name index. Price: $32.00, NC Tax: $2.24, P&H: $6.00 (Item # D-32)

NEWER BOOK! Chastain – Elijah Chastain of Caney Fork, Haywood County, North Carolina, by

Wes Patterson (2024) This is the second volume of "Butterfly Biographies," a series of books on the author's ancestors. Elijah Chastain was the great-grandson of French Huguenot Dr. Pierre Chastain, the original Chastain immigrant. Wes Patterson is Elijah's 4th great Grandson. Elijay was married three times and the father of at least 23 children. His three wives were Hannah Adams, Anna Middleton and Catherine Carson. The book is well sourced and includes maps, pictures and QR codes making it possible to visit many locations. A few of the other surnames in the book are Patterson, Denton, Kincaids, Cowards, Carson, Middleton, Nicholson, and Akins. With 23 children there are many more. 422 pages, ring bound, full name index. Price: $45.00, NC Tax: $3.15, P&H: $8.00 (Item # G-12)

NEW BOOK for OBCGS - Back in Print! The Clayton Clique, The Descendants of George Clayton, (1723-1786) Part I and Part II. By Virginia S. Green (1995) Back in Print! Virginia Green produced this book back in 1995 as she researched the Clayton line for joining the DAR. She accumulated so many documents on George Clayton she decided to preserve that research in this two part book. Part One covers the first eight generations and Part Two covers generations 9-12. You need to purchase the set. Part One is 248 pages, Part Two is 282 pages. Both books have an index. Price for the set of two books: $45.00 NC Tax: $3.15 P&H: $9.00 (Item # E-29)

NEWER BOOK! The Coleman Family of 36 Montford Avenue, Asheville, North Carolina, by Jane Zimmermann Slaton & Sandra Samz, (2024) The Coleman family lived in the historic district of Montford in Asheville, NC from the late 1800s to the mid 1900s. Their home was at the entrance to Montford Ave. and was sometimes referred to as a “castle.” This book shares their story through personal family letters, but names of other Asheville residents are mentioned in the letters. We also have a glimpse of life in Asheville during this time – the paving of streets, the flu epidemic, the celebration of the end of WWI. The family story is combined with the story of the home and its fate. It reads like a novel, but it is not fiction. Sb, 144 pgs, illustrated and full name index. Price: $25.00, NC Tax: $1.75, P&H: $7.00 (Item # G-01)

REPUBLISHED! Henry – Fear in North Carolina = The Civil War Journals and Letters of the Henry Family. Compiled and Edited by Karen L. Clinard and Richard Russell (2008) Reprinted by OBCGS (2024) Fear in North Carolina compiles Cornelia Henry’s three journals, written between 1861 and 1868, into a single volume, supplemented with additional family letters, documents and photos. Newspaper advertisements and period photos provide historical perspective. The journals provide an excellent source of information on Western North Carolina prior to, during and following the Civil War. Her writings express her thoughts and fears as she describes her daily routines, rumors and news of the war, raids, and occupation of Asheville by Union troops, and finally, troublesome times after the war. Also provides genealogical information for families living in the Sulphur Springs/West Asheville area during that time, information not available in typical genealogical sources. 442 pages, sb, Illustrated, full index. Price: $50.00 NC Tax: $3.50, P&H: $8.00 (Item # G-02)

Newfound Baptist Church Minutes – 1802 – 1865, by Wes Patterson. (2022)

This soft bound book is a transcription of the original church minutes for this historic church -- said to be the oldest Baptist Church in the area. We know they were here by February 6, 1802 but planning for the church had started earlier. This 149-page book documents the history of the church as well as lists of members, pastors, and church leaders. It is an excellent resource for early western NC settlers. Deaths are mentioned as well as husbands and wives by name. There is a complete name index. Price: $30.00 NC Tax: $2.10 P&H: $7.00 (Item B-6)

NEW BOOK! Newfound Baptist Church Minutes, Vol. 2, 1866 – 1915, Editor: Tammy McKay

This is the second volume of the Newfound Baptist Church Minutes. The first volume covers 1802-1865. This soft bound book is a transcription of the original church minutes for this historic church, said to be the oldest Baptist Church in the area. The 214 page book is a wonderful resource for information on early settlers. There are several membership lists as well as names of the church leaders. An important resource since the 1890 census is missing. Women are listed separately on some lists and most are listed with their given name. There is a full name index.

TRANSYLVANIA COUTY

NEWER BOOK! Cemeteries in Little River Township, by Transylvania County Cemetery Board of Trustees. Little River was one of the earliest communities in Transylvania County, NC. This book documents 11 Cemeteries found in this community. You may think this information is on the Internet, but this book goes beyond that. First, there is a history of Little River including what happened when electricity came to the area and the damming of Little River that created Cascade Lake. Each cemetery has a little background/history and pictures of people and markers. They have gone further to document notes about the burials and about unmarked burials in some cemeteries. While there is no index, there is a page explaining how to use the book. 85 pages, ring bound, Black & White: $20.00, NC Tax: $1.40, P&H: $6.00 (Item # G-14)

Newer Book! The Whole Country Has Gone Up, History of the Second North Carolina Mounted Infantry, October 1863 – August 1865. By David P. Smith, (2024) There were two regiments of the Federal Army raised in the mountains of western North Carolina and Tennessee in 1863. This book focuses on the Second NC Mounted Infantry but also includes documentation for the 3rd NC Mounted Infantry due to their entanglement in history. Smith was driven by a desire to tell the truth about these regiments and the men who served in them. Not only does he tell the regiments history, he also provides details about the men who served. Sources are well documented and there is an index. 411 pages, Price: $29.95, NC Tax: $2.10, P&H: $8 (Item G-07)

Newer Book! When Violence Came to the Mountains, History of The Third North Carolina Mounted Infantry, June 1864-August 1865, by David P. Smith (2024)
This is the second book by David Smith on the two Federal Army regiments raised in the mountains of WNC. David describes the impact on WNC by the 3rd NCMI, under the leadership of George Washington Kirk. He states that he focused on separating fact from fiction. He identified the men involved, where were they from and what were they like. “I had to stay to the facts that I could find and if it was a well-known event, but not supported by facts, then I left it out, rather than embellish something I could not prove.” If you follow Civil War history this is a great resource. 412 pages, soft bound, Illustrated, full name index. FAMILY HISTORIES

Ash – Ashe – Stillwell, By John Reid Ashe, (2023) This book was originally published in 1977 by John Ashe. He travelled WNC interviewing folks, collecting stories and pictures. His family donated his amazing research collection to the OBCGS Library where you will find more information on these families. John wrote this book prior to Ancestry.com or computer programs for family research. His goal was “to furnish a complete record on the Ash and their descendants who came from Virginia to Lincoln County, NC prior to 1800 and by 1830 were in what is now Macon and Jackson Counties, NC.” OBCGS has scanned and printed his book with the addition of a pedigree chart of his ancestors and an expanded Table of Contents. 441 pages, name index and index of pictures. Lots of very old pictures. Other prominent surnames include Bryson, Cabe, Deitz, Cunningham, Fullbright, Green, Jones, Robinson, Sutton, Taylor, and Wright among others. Biddick - NEW BOOK! A Heritage Revealed, The Early Biddick Family of Southwest England – Second Edition, by Randy Biddix. (2025) The author has written this book as a follow up to Legacy that Endures: The Story of my Biddix Ancestors of Western North Carolina which tells the story of his 5th great grandfather, John Bittick, who came to America from the British Isles sometime before 1753. This second book expands on the earlier research by tracing the origins of the family back to England. A number of records which explore the surname and its usage, locations and movements, occupations, and the likely progenitor of the family back to the 12th Century are presented. A detailed review of the parish records and a Y-DNA analysis are also highlighted. Original research for this book was conducted in England by the author. There are 114 pages including a number of pictures, maps, graphics, and documents. This second edition is the result of further research by the author. He documents unexpected findings. The book is soft bound, sources well documented, and includes an every-name index. Price: $32.00, NC Tax: $2.24, P&H: $6.00 (Item # D-32)

Coleman - Newer Book! The Coleman Family of 36 Montford Avenue, Asheville, North Carolina, by Jane Zimmermann Slaton & Sandra Samz, (2024) The Coleman family lived in the historic district of Montford in Asheville, NC from the late 1800s to the mid 1900s. Their home was at the entrance to Montford Ave. and was sometimes referred to as a “castle.” This book shares their story through personal family letters, but names of other Asheville residents are mentioned in the letters. We also have a glimpse of life in Asheville during this time, the flu epidemic, the celebration of the end of WWI. The family story is combined with the story of the home and its fate. It reads like a novel, but it is not fiction. Sb, 144 pgs, illustrated & full name index. Price: $25.00, NC Tax: $1.75, P&H: $7.00 (Item # G-01)

Henry -- REPUBLISHED! Henry - Fear in North Carolina = The Civil War Journals and Letters of the Henry Family. Compiled and Edited by Karen L. Clinard and Richard Russell (2008) Reprinted by OBCGS (2024) Fear in North Carolina compiles Cornelia Henry's three journals, written between 1861 and 1868, into a single volume, supplemented with additional family letters, documents and photos. Newspaper advertisements and period photos provide historical perspective. The journals provide an excellent source of information on Western North Carolina prior to, during and following the Civil War. Her writings express her thoughts and fears as she describes her daily routines, rumors and news of the war, raids, and occupation of Asheville by Union troops, and finally, troublesome times after the war. These entries also provide genealogical information for families living in the Sulphur Springs/West Asheville area during that time, information not available in typical genealogical sources. 442 pages, sb, Illustrated, full name index. NEW BOOK! A Mosaic of Memories, by OBCGS Writers Group

We are excited to present this new book! Members of the OBCGS Writers Group meet via Zoom once a month to share and support each other as they venture into publishing a book. Recently some members took a challenge to write a few pages about one person – not a whole book. These submissions have been combined into a book of memories and a lot of family research. Surnames include – Anderson, Bell, Bellinger, Berry, Boyd, Britain, Bull, Burleson, Campbell, Carpenter, Case, Chapman, Chastain, Clark, Constantino, Cox, Curtis, Eubanks, Gillespie, Gilmore, Gudger, Hammond, Hawkins, Holton, Hudspeth, Hutchinson, Jarmon, Jordan, Justice, Lake, Langley, Lance, Leicester, Maren, Mason, McCurry, McElreth, McLean, Miller, Moore, Norton, Owenby, Painter, Radford, Revis, Roederer, Smoak, Stevens, Surret, Thomas, Wagner, Williams, Winfree, Withrow, and Wright. Each author has also written a short bio so that you can become acquainted with them. These bios are a testament to the variety of backgrounds and interests of each author resulting in this fascinating book. This book is enjoyable reading and may just provide that research fact you have been seeking. The authors were impressed with the strength of their ancestors, especially the women. They hope to publish another volume and invite other members of this Writers Group to join them. Perhaps YOU will be inspired to join them in writing your own story. Contact us at info@obcgs.com. The book is illustrated, in color and indexed. 178 pages, Price: $18.00, NC Tax: $1.26, P&H: $7.00. If you order multiple copies, the P&H will be priced by the box, not the book. (Item # B-24_
